++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
More widely cloudy.

Today:
A largely cloudy day, but less murky for those previously affected by fog. West of high ground seeing the more reliable brighter spells but feeling cooler here than the weekend. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloud breaking up through the evening and overnight. Turning cold under these clear intervals with a widespread frost and isolated fog patches developing. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Tuesday:
After a chilly start, a notably brighter day on Tuesday with sunny intervals. Cloud potentially holding on a bit more across Pembrokeshire and Anglesey. Staying dry but feeling rather cold. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Another widely frosty start to Wednesday with a few fog patches. Sunny spells and feeling rather cold during the day. Turning more unsettled into Thursday and Friday.
